Seattle Pacific University is committed to the continuing education of ministers of the gospel. The Christian Minister Tuition Discount program is supported by the institution to make it economically feasible for persons involved in full-time Christian pastoral responsibilities to pursue studies that will enhance their ministry.

Amount of Discount

Free Methodist Pastors

- Awarded to currently active full-time ordained pastors or assistant pastors appointed by the Pacific Northwest Conference of the Free Methodist Church.
- Awarded as full tuition discount for the first five undergraduate or first three graduate credits per term; and a 20% discount for additional credits.

All Other Christian Pastors

- Awarded to currently active full-time, ordained, practicing Christian pastors and missionaries.
- Awarded as a 20% discount on tuition only.

Additional Requirements and Information

- A new application must be submitted for approval each school year (Fall through Summer) that you would like to receive the tuition discount.
- The tuition discount may be used for undergraduate and graduate levels.
- Since the focus of the program is to provide continuing education, the discount may be used for regular credits, spiral classes, and/or media courses.
- The Christian Minister Tuition Discount will be counted as a resource and if you are receiving other financial aid, receiving the Christian Minister Tuition Discount may affect the amount or type of other aid for which you are eligible.
